SCHOOL AIM

“To provide a Christian environment in which young people are safe, secure, cared for and happy, and are able to develop into articulate, confident and well qualified citizens of the world.”

Photograph Of The Week

Mr Richardson, our LRB Manager, writes about the above photograph:

“Pictured are some of our students who have entered BBC Radio 2’s 500 Words Short Story competition, which is ‘the most successful story-writing competition for kids in the world’. They’re hoping to win Chris Evans’ height in books and 500 books for their school library, to be awarded at a spectacular ceremony in London in a few months time. If you have an interest in creative writing, come along to our ‘We Write Workshops’ after school on Wednesdays in the LRB.”

The event also coincided with World Book Day (pictured inside) with the often repeated message;

“Those who read, succeed.”

World Book Day Attire

A number of subject departments dressed up last Thursday in costumes related to their favourite books or authors. The winners this year were the Mathematics department, shown bottom right.

At The End Of The Day...

...of our World Book Day there was a very successful and well attended quiz for students, shown on the next page. Regular reading is a proven way of improving literacy; spelling, vocabulary, sentences and paragraphs. Literacy is the key to succeeding in numerous subjects across the school curriculum.

Earlier this week, dress rehearsals took place for this years school musical production. Performances are next Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday and Head of Music, Ms Brown, has stated that it should be the “best ever”.

And Finally.....

.....World Book Day wouldn't be the same unless we focused, in particular, on the Religious Education Department. Their theme this year was '101 Dalmatians', shown below, and supported by geography staff.
