SCHOOL AIM

“To provide a Christian environment in which young people are safe, secure, cared for and happy, and are able to develop into articulate, confident and well qualified citizens of the world.”

Churches Galore!

As part of the Religious Education curriculum in Year 7, students are given the task of constructing their own churches. The above photo shows an impressive range of churches with students from 7PIA and Head of Year 7, Ms Ripley. The design, structure and detail of the churches shows the hard work and creativity from our Year 7s. Some students chose to make edible churches out of gingerbread or cake, which went down very well after being presented in the classroom! Well done to all students in Year 7 for making such a great effort with their churches.

Snow!

The Trinity site has had its fair share of snow this week, as you can see from the below photos! A number of students queried why we were open whilst other schools were closed. I politely replied that our site was safe, the buildings were warm and then asked “where else would you rather be!”

Year 10 Parents' Evening

A successful parents' evening took place for our Year 10 students in the Sports Centre on Thursday, 15th February. It was an excellent opportunity for parents and teachers to have conversations about how the students are progressing in the first year of their GCSE courses.

And finally...

...shortly before the February half term break, we were delighted to welcome a special guest to Trinity, the Jamaican High Commissioner, Mr Seth George Ramacon. The High Commissioner was joined by a number of representatives from the Jamaican Society, including former Trinity governors, Cllr Whit Stennett. The High Commissioner has a specialist interest in Education, as the Founder and Chairman of the National Committee for Excellence in Lesson Planning, and a published author of 'Teacher's Diary', a lesson planning book used by over 20,000 teachers in Jamaica and the Caribbean. Our guests toured the school and spent time in our Sixth Form Centre, speaking to students about life at Trinity.
