Anniversary Concert at the Royal Northern College of Music

From Acting Head of Music, Ms Gocher: “On Monday evening, nearly 150 Trinity students took part in the Anniversary Concert at the RNCM, to the largest audience we’ve ever had. The standard of performance was exceptional, and the variety of talent on display was a credit to the school. From steel pans to medieval orchestral music, the efforts of all the rehearsal processes were clear to see. Mr McCoy said that one of the performances “sent shivers down his spine” and several tears were brought to people’s eyes. Charlotte Wheeler and Eilis Jones treated us to trumpet and violin solos, respectively, and we also said goodbye and thank you to many of our Year 11 musicians, for whom this will have been their last public performance with Trinity. Well done to all involved!”

Year 7 Parents' Evening

Last Thursday, the parents' evening for students in Year 7 took place in the Sports Centre. It was an excellent opportunity to for parents and subject teachers to discuss progress during our Year 7s first year at Trinity. We were delighted to see that 84% of parents attended and 132 questionnaires were completed. We would encourage all parents to complete the questionnaires when attending any parents evening. Here is just one of the very positive comments made by a parent last week: "My daughter has really enjoyed her time so far at Trinity. I am particularly impressed with all the different clubs and after school activities which she has been able to access. I am pleased the school is focusing on educating the whole child and not just the academic!"

Sport Relief Mile

From Head of House, Ms Sussman:

"The Sport Relief Mile was well attended once again this year. So far, Trinity has raised £154.15 and donations are still coming in. A great effort and a fun time was had by all students and staff who participated - well done to all those who took part."

- 1st place - Luke Johnson (11KWA) - Wallaby
- 2nd place - Israel Aghahowa (10RDU) - Tiger
- 3rd place - Noah Douglas (11SBA) - Springbok

And finally...

.....we have been delighted to welcome special guests to lead our Eucharists in recent weeks: Rt Revd Mark Davies, the Bishop of Middleton, and Revd Matt Calladine, a parent of current and former Trinity students.
