Description	Action	By Whom
Item 1 – Bullying and racism Mr. Chapman presented information to the Council about bullying and how Trinity tackles bullying. After this the Council discussed ways Trinity could improve the ways bullying are tackled and raising awareness about bullying to Trinity Students.	Further consultation to take place over members of the council becoming bullying mentors, who will be there to speak to if students are being bullied.	Mr .Saunders, Allen Marsden, Joshua Harper and publicists
Item 2 – Rewards Mr. Saunders reported back to the council about the proposed rewards and merits scheme. This proposal would include, Lower School Achievement Merits, Upper School Achievement Merits, Citizenship Merits and House Merits. Postcards would also be sent home for one of the above. This proposal has now full backing from the Head and will be trialled for a term.	The Council agreed that a new system and a new look for the Merit system would be relevant. The system was then queried about how it would be financed. They then thought about ways which this could be publicised.	Allen Marsden, Joshua Harper and Publicists
Item 3 – School Meals The Student Council raised a query about school dinner prices rising, about the quality of the food and the quantity it is distributed.	The council proposed a microwave being placed in the dinner hall, where Students could bring their own food into school and heat it up there.	Allen Marsden, Nicole May and Joshua Harper

Item 4 – Feedback on Feedback on proposed screens being placed in designated areas such as dinner halls and main student entrances	The council will follow up this approved proposal and suggest ideas to the ways it shall be publicised.	Allen Marsden, Joshua Harper and Publicists
Item 5 – More teacher and student competitions The council agreed that, following the previous success of Wallaby house’s Spelling Bee, that it would be a good idea to organize a whole school teacher and student event	This forum will be taken back to the house councils for consideration.	Allen Marsden, Joshua Harper and Publicists
