What A Wonderful Set Of Results!

In our 40th year it is a delight to report the 'best' examination results Trinity has ever achieved! If the government produces a league table of achievements on the key headline measure this year, we'll be in second place - beating all the other secondary schools in the city except King David. I'm usually nervous about how a year group will perform, but last year's Year 11 gave me no cause for concern. Throughout their five years they have been a cohesive and hardworking cohort and navigated the challenges of 'lockdown' in Year 7 and associated Covid-19 issues in Year 8 with great composure. The consistent pastoral support offered by form teachers and their Senior Tutor (Ms Davies) and Pastoral Tutor (Mr Sewell) was first class and deserves recognition.

Teachers in school were delighted to note the achievements and we are pleased that so many students have chosen to stay on at our Sixth Form and are looking forward to two years preparing for university. Naturally (for a comprehensive school), we had a mixture of grades but these students all achieved a statistical average of Grade 9 in all their exams; Robin B, Jemima F, Daisy C, Chelsea B, Haider D, Winielle A and Leila A. The majority of students in the year 'added value' on their statistical estimates, and this 'magnificent seven' gained an average of 3 grades higher than government predictions in all their subjects; Elijah C, Joy S, Joshua A, Ilham O, Aaean K, Amani O, and Brempomah K. Well done to a fantastic year group.

Welcome to our new Year 7s

On Wednesday, 4th September, we were delighted to welcome our newest Year 7 cohort to Trinity. The students started their day with an assembly and time with their forms. The year group has made an exceptionally positive start and we're very pleased to see how well they are settling into life at Trinity.

Minister Visit

On Friday, 19th July, the last day of term before the summer break, we were delighted to welcome the new Minister for Early Education, Stephen Morgan MP to discuss mental health provision at Trinity with students and staff. Following the visit, Mr Morgan wrote a letter of thanks, indicating how the 'importance of the positive relationships and trust built between these pupils and members of staff came across clearly.' We were also delighted that Afazal Khan, the new MP for the school also joined us for the meeting to discuss these important issues.

Save The Dates!

We have some important 'save the dates' for parents of students who are currently in Year 5 or 6. Our tours of the school begin on Tuesday, 17th September, 2024. They will run every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, from 9.15am until 10.45 this half term. Please book your place on the school website:

Eucharist

Our End of Year Eucharist service took place on Friday, 19th July, and we were delighted to welcome Revd Augustine Tanner-Ihm to lead the service.

And Finally…

…last Thursday we were very pleased to host a visit for a group of international trainee teachers from the University of Manchester, in order to give them an insight into the UK education system. We were delighted to receive feedback about planning such a comprehensive and powerful experience for the trainees. Our thanks go to Ms Jones, Lead Practitioner, for organising this visit.
